

NO MORE "READIN', RITIN' AN' 'RITHMETIC" For the Girl Graduate Now Holds the Center of the Stage

The last day of school! What an important event in the life of the girl graduate. The years of hard study, of close application to books, are about to come to an end. And the long-expected, looked-for, happy day is drawing near. There are to be several girls in the class to graduate, and their mothers are making every effort to see that the commencement dresses of their daughters will compare favorably with their classmates'.

Commencement Dresses $5.98 to $15.00

The Commencement Dresses now on display at this store appeal particularly to the young girl in her teens. They are made of the sheerest White and Colored Voiles, Crepe de Chine, etc., and are trimmed with Laces that produce a very desirable effect. An early selection is wisest.

Silk Stockings for the Graduate

None else but Silk Stockings would answer. Nor need the cost be excessive—not if you purchase at this store. There's economy, however, in the purchasing of good quality. Ours are the best money can buy.

Fibre Silk Stockings, per pair 25c to 50c
Pure Silk Stockings, per pair 50c to $2.00

Gifts for the Graduate

The friends of the graduates are just as interested as the parents, so let this help solve the problem for the fair graduate. Silk Hosiery. Kid or Silk Gloves. Toilet Articles. Silk Parasols. Pretty Fans. Silver Bags. And many other useful, as well as acceptable gifts.

To be bowling easily along the country highway on a motorcycle and to have the vehicle suddenly break at the cross bar and separate into two sections was the experience of Paul Lachner, a Montpelier & Wells River engineer employed in Barre, while returning to his home in Montpelier last evening.

The wheel which Mr. Lachner was using was of a light design and it is thought that the two wheels were divorced when the forward wheel struck a stone. Mr. Lachner was thrown heavily into the road and sustained painful bruises about the lower limbs. The motorcycle, it is feared, was wrecked beyond repair, although the remnants of the machine were brought to the city this morning and hung up in a Depot square hospital for motorcycles.

Mr. Lachner made his way home on a trolley car and returned to Barre this morning, although he will not resume work until his bruises are well healed.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

Ministers' Monday Club Held Last Meeting of the Season.

The closing meeting of the season of the Ministers' Monday club was held in Williamstown yesterday and took the form, in the first part of it, of an outing. Members and friends were met at the station by autos kindly furnished by men of the three local churches and taken for a trip that led over the hills of Brookfield, across State lake by way of the floating bridge, down the beautiful road to the branch and return by way of Williamstown gulf, in which a half-hour stop was made. On return to the village, dinner, purveyed in the hotel by Mine Host Corlies, was enjoyed, after which adjournment was made to the parlor of the M. E. church.

The president, Rev. Ivan H. Benedict, occupied the chair, and the feature of the afternoon was the able and interesting paper delivered by Dr. J. E. Piani of Barre, dealing with problems in the work with "new Americans." Those present were Revs. Lewis C. Carson, Ivan H. Benedict, S. F. Blomfield of Montpelier; Frank Blomfield of Berlin; William Taylor of Brookfield; J. W. Barnett, Bailey G. Lipsky, J. P. Piani, Edgar Crossland and Mrs. Crossland of Barre; William Ewing, D. D., of Boston; Alven Smith and Mrs. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Keeling, John Irons and Mrs. Irons of Williamstown. Before adjournment, a resolution of appreciation and thanks to those who gave the use of their cars was passed with undoubted enthusiasm. These were W. E. Simons, Albert Norris, Dr. E. B. Watson and Edwin Clogston of Williamstown and Rev. L. C. Carson of Montpelier.
